LISA RICHARDS PRESENTS

Des Bishop: 'Tongues'

Having spent the past year of intense study and immersion in Connemara's Gaeltacht in an effort to speak as Gaeilge – Des Bishop is back on the road again. 'Tongues' deals with Des's most formidable challenge yet, taking the ultimate step towards Irishness. The show also explores the religious side of Des's identity, from his early days as an overly theatrical altar boy to his experience with people who have the power to speak in tongues. Heavily booked.

UPSTATE THEATRE PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

Submarine Man - The Little Known Life of John P. Holland

Submarine Man is a hilarious and yet at times incredibly moving account of one of Ireland's greatest unsung heroes. The year is 1873. John Philip Holland is obsessed with his design for a bizarre, submergible craft. Infused with the inventiveness of this eccentric genius, this true-story drama tells the little-known tale of 'the father of the modern submarine' and one of Ireland's greatest, unsung naval heroes.

Bill Doyle's Ireland

A retrospective exhibition by a master photographer

Bill Doyle is one of Ireland's best-loved photographers. His work has a lightness of touch, a warmth and humour and showcases iconic images of Ireland in the 1970s. glór is delighted to host this long awaited retrospective of his work, for which new archive-quality prints of Bill's iconic images were specially commissioned. Selected by the photographer, they are hand-printed and gold-toned by Bill's long-term print collaborator, Hetty Walsh. The exhibition features over seventy images with subjects ranging from the spirited characters of Bill's native Dublin to the rugged beauty of the west of Ireland. Signed prints of the work are available for sale.

Bill Doyle's Ireland is a Gallery of Photography Touring Exhibition.

Of particular interest to a Clare audience is an early portrait of Clare musician Martin Hayes.

Cuba Classico featuring Quintet de Urfé

The Quintet de Urfé, founded in Havana in 1975, was set up to showcase to the world the works of the Urfé family and other Cuban composers of the 19th and 20th centuries. The Habanero's Quintet are one of only two ensembles who have played their unique repertoire of Cuban folk and classical music on the European stage. This concert thus represents a rare opportunity to experience a wonderfully rich and atmospheric blend of Latin American folk and classical music. glór friends

Crooked Still featuring Aoife O'Donovan

Meet Crooked Still, the hot young alternative bluegrass group on a mission to bend the boundaries of traditional music. The unlikely combination of banjo, cello, and double-bass drives this low lonesome band, who have enraptured audiences all over North America and Ireland since 2001. Rock energy coexists with old-time mountain soul, spooky backwoods melodies combine with hip hard-hitting beats, raw, searing blues riffs intermingle with high heavenly vocals. Here's the catch: No electricity. No drums.

Clare Youth Service Making Light of Hard Times

Making Light of Hard Times is a photography exhibition illustrating the story of a music and theatre performance project run by the CYS Literacy Programme. The exhibition traces the rehearsal and final performance with director Tony Maude and literacy tutor and producer Fionnuala Tuohy. The performance was based on human responses to challenging situations - hard times through the ages: in ancient Greece, the legend of Oedipus, the Great Depression in America, present day Afghanistan and in Shakespeare's Forest of Arden, while encouraging us to try to be happy in the face of adversity.

An Evening with Don Baker

Don Baker is the Irish maestro of the Blues. Raised on Dublin's Northside in the 1950s, he turned to music to escape the trappings of life in the inner city and found his own soul in rhythm and blues. Don has toured all over the world and has, so far, released eight albums. He has cultivated a magnificent twang unique to his own style and his fan base stretches to both sides of the Atlantic.
