Welcome to the new autumn season of events at glór. Our autumn programme is jam packed with events to suit everyone. With so much choice, it can be difficult to make a decision, but we have suggested some of our favourite shows to help make your decision a little easier. These are listed below and denoted with the 🌟 symbol throughout the brochure.

Even better, if you book two of the shows from the list below in one transaction by Wednesday September 12th, you'll get a 25% discount on the cheaper show!

Emer Mayock, Jean-Michel Veillon & Donal Siggins

This stellar trio explore the music of Brittany and Ireland with more than an occasional nod to Eastern Europe and India. details on page 9

The Good Thief by Conor McPherson

From the playwright of Dublin Carol, The Good Thief, at turns funny and violent, is the story of a Dublin thug whose botched scare-job goes badly wrong.

OCI PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

Bondi Beach Boy Blue

by Benny McDonnell

Declan is set to become another Kilkenny hurling great until fate intervenes and he bolts for Ireland's Antipodean outpost: Bondi. Bondi Beach Boy Blue is the story of his relationships with the important people in his life, the story of the problems he ran away from in Ireland and what he ran into in Australia. It is the story of a small town hero forced from his comfort zone and having to find his place on a larger stage.

GARE ST. LAZARE PLAYERS PRESENT

The Good Thief by Conor McPherson

Directed by Judy Hegarty Lovett Performed by Conor Lovett

From the team that brought Samuel Beckett's 'Molloy' to glór last November, Gare St. Lazare Players return with one of Conor McPherson's early monologues. From the playwright of 'Dublin Carol', The Good Thief, at turns funny and violent, is the story of a Dublin thug whose botched scare-job goes badly wrong.

Lovett's laconic delivery has something of Christopher Walken about it - Santa Barbara Independent. glór friends

SECOND AGE PRESENT

Philadelphia, Here I Come!

Directed by Alan Stanford

Philadelphia, Here I Come! is a coming of age story. Gar O'Donnell's prospects of a tedious existence at home and a luckless love life, have driven him to seek a better life in America. This is a subtle comedy, which is at times whimsical, sometimes frenetic, but always deeply compassionate.

Chiara Browne

Already familiar to glór audiences as the support act for Paul Brady in April 2006, this Australian musician impresses wherever she goes. Names that frequently emerge in relation to Chiara's voice and music are Emmylou Harris, Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crowe, Gillian Welch, Julie London, and even Thom Yorke. Chiara will be performing with her three piece band.

Browne has star quality in spades. A voice to melt the hardest of hearts... she's a formidable talent - Hot Press

€12/10 CONC.* STUDIO

The Jeff & Vida Band

Jeff Burke and Vida Wakeman began performing in the bars and clubs of New Orleans in 1998. Their different backgrounds and shared love of American roots music helped them create a unique sound that fuses blues, country, rock & roll and bluegrass, and can only be described as Americana. The Jeff and Vida Band's live performances showcase Vida's powerful voice, Jeff's superb picking on mandolin, guitar and banjo, Mike Kerwin's slap-you-in-the-face bass playing and tight, well arranged harmonies. glór friends

Freddie White

Freddie White is something of a legend, having won just about every award there is. He was a founding member of Scullion, later forming The Fake, regarded as one of the seminal Irish bands of the late 70's. With a recording career that spans 25 years, Freddie remains one of Ireland's most individual artists.

The Duhks featuring Aoife O'Donovan

The Duhks, from Canada, have been riveting audiences across North America and around the world. This is not surprising, given their blend of soul, gospel, North American folk, Brazilian samba, old time country string band, zydeco and the way they interweave these acoustic styles. Their unique sound has also earned them a Grammy Award nomination in the Best Country Vocal Performance by a Group or Duo category.

Young@Heart is Alive and Well

STAGED BY NO THEATER

This US chorus ranges in age from 72 to 93. They take the music of their children and grandchildren's generation, and sing it like you've never heard it sung before. From The Beatles and The Rolling Stones to Radiohead and OutKast, they dispel the myth that the 'golden years' are spent playing bingo and gardening.

From start to finish, Young @ Heart charmed and pleased, hamming it up more than most stand-up comedians and entertaining the audience more than most stadium rockers. The result: abundant smiles and a few tears from audience members and performers alike. The Dartmouth Staff

The audience's emotions are constantly shifting from tears to outright guffaws, which is in part what makes the experience so moving. Time magazine

Choral Workshop by director Bob Cilman & chorus members on Wednesday. Further details glór box office. €10/5 CONC.

MUSIC NETWORK PRESENTS

The Bester Quartet

Jaroslaw Bester - accordion

Jaroslaw Tyrala - violin

Oleg Dyyak - accordion, clarinet, percussion

Wojciech Front - double bass

This strikingly innovative Polish quartet, formerly known as the Cracow Klezmer Band, delves into the dark side of the Klezmer tradition, eschewing the whirling Hora and Bulgar dance tunes normally associated with Yiddish music for an intoxicating blend of traditional, jazz and avant garde music.

POD PRESENTS

Duke Special with Band

Gloriously vintage and unlike any other artist, Duke Special is a fervent performer who harks back to the pre-rock 'n roll era with dashes of Gershwin and orchestral swing. Dynamic, musically ambitious and bracingly eccentric, he's right on cue with his inimitable style and lush musicality. Expect favourites such as 'Brixton Leaves', 'Slip of A Girl', 'Last Night I Nearly Died' and 'Freewheel'. Duke Special is once heard, never forgotten.

Jack L

A singular talent, Kildare man Jack Lukeman's last performance in glór in May 2006, was a sell-out. His music is genre defying and to try to pigeon hole him a crooner or storytelling troubadour is a pointless exercise. His voice is three-dimensional in that he can go from a seducing whisper to an internal organ-shaking operatic top note, effortlessly. Expect a stage presence and performance like nothing you have experienced before.

Early booking advised.

€7 (INCL. TEA/COFFEE)

GLÓR FRIENDS: 2 FOR 1

The Page Turner

DIR: DENIS DERCOURT / FRANCE / 2006 / 85 MINS / CLUB

An emotionally taut thriller, which centres on a thwarted young pianist, the score includes pieces by Shostakovich, Bach and Schubert. Mélanie takes the Conservatory entrance exam, but fails after being distracted by the thoughtless behaviour of the chairwoman of the jury. Bitterly disappointed, Mélanie gives up the piano forever. Ten years later, however, their paths cross again, when the young woman becomes her personal page turner.

SUNDAY 23 SEPTEMBER 8PM

€7 (INCL. TEA/COFFEE)

GLÓR FRIENDS: 2 FOR 1

Notes on a Scandal

DIR: RICHARD EYRE / UK / 2006 / 91 MINS / 16

A witty, acerbic adaptation of Zoe Heller's novel, Judi Dench and Cate Blanchett star in a story of two women in the grip of their own self-destructive, uncontrollable passions. Barbara is a domineering teacher. When vulnerable teacher Sheba joins the staff, Barbara becomes obsessed with the idea of their enjoying a passionate lifelong friendship. When she discovers that Sheba is having an affair with a pupil, she exploits this.

SUNDAY 30 SEPTEMBER 8PM

€7 (INCL. TEA/COFFEE)

GLÓR FRIENDS: 2 FOR 1

Mountain Patrol

DIR: CHAUN LU / CHINA/HONGKONG/2004/85 MINS/CLUB

When Ga Yu, a journalist, arrives at the mystical camp of the Kekexili Mountain Patrol, he becomes determined to uncover the real story behind the mysterious disappearance of patrol volunteers, the slaughtering of Tibetan antelopes, and allegations of cooperation with the illegal hunters. He thus joins the patrol headed for 40,000 square kilometers of wilderness. What ensues is a journey where faith wins out.

SUNDAY 7 OCTOBER 8PM

€7 (INCL. TEA/COFFEE)

GLÓR FRIENDS: 2 FOR 1

This is England

DIR: SHANE MEADOWS / UK / 2006 / 100 MINS / 18

When a group of skinheads take 12 year old Shaun under their wing, he discovers parties, girls and snappy dressing, and finds some role models in the gang. Soon, however, Shaun is drawn into much more uncomfortable territory. Based largely on his own experience, Shane Meadows' film handles the complexities of masculinity, violence and race with sensitivity and a lightness of touch.

SUNDAY 14 OCTOBER 8PM

€7 (INCL. TEA/COFFEE)

GLÓR FRIENDS: 2 FOR 1

Neil Young: Heart of Gold

DIR: JONATHAN DEMME / USA / 2006 / 103 MINS / GEN

Filmed live in concert, Neil Young was facing into surgery for a brain aneurysm the following week. Laconic as ever, he introduces the songs with reflections on his youth, his late father, the empty nest when his daughter left home for college, and the old guitar he bought 30 years ago. This celebration of his musical genius is an experience to cherish. For aficionados, it is sheer bliss.

SUNDAY 21 OCTOBER 8PM

GLÓR FRIENDS: 2 FOR 1

After the Wedding

DIR: SUSANNE BIER / DENMARK / 2006 / 122 MINS / CLUB

Transplanted Dane Jacob Peterson runs a struggling orphanage in one of India's poorest regions. Fiercely devoted to his charges, Jacob considers all Westerners criminally spoiled, so it's only thanks to the intensity of his commitment that he entertains his boss's plea to return to Denmark to meet with a wealthy entrepreneur who may be willing to save their orphanage. This sparks a chain of events that changes all their lives forever.

glór is home to a great gallery space that holds excellent visual art and occasional applied art exhibitions.

Our exhibitions have been extremely successful, not to mention award-winning. Exhibitions of note include, Airborne Drawings by Samuel Walsh, (Oct 03); Inis Oírr by Mick O'Dea RHA (Oct 04); New Works 2005, Manus Walsh (Nov 05); Texaco Children's Art Competition (04 - 06); the annual Clare County Arts Office Embrace Scheme and of course our Selects...series, which comprises a major invited artists' exhibition curated by an established well-known artist, such as Lorraine Wall, John Shinnors and Walter Verling.

NEW SCULPTURE AND DRAWINGS BY HOLGER LÖNZE & AOIFE FITZGERALD

Holger Lönze's sculptures and drawings are concerned with the poetics of the journey, reflecting on both ancient and contemporary experience. He previously exhibited in the glór gallery with Through Time & Tide, an exhibition of Currach styles in Ireland. Born in Germany, he has worked as artist-in-residence for Cavan County Council and Craigavon Borough Council.

Aoife Fitzgerald has been working long-term with line, mass and negative space. Her drawings beautifully capture the energy and vitality of the city and the haphazard meeting of old, new, utilitarian and quirky. Originally from Dublin, she now lives and works in Co. Clare.

Máirín Kelly - Aspect

Kelly's work reflects on the local and global interests in our landscape from an environmental and visual perspective. Much of the work is informed by diverse pressures on the uplands in the forms of afforestation, windfarms, and indeed in the different forms of ecology and conservation, thus illustrating the contested space the land has become. Aspect comprises a series of various habitat drawings and a group of peat paintings. The use of peat from the uplands locates the work. Using simple materials, the boundary between art and nature is blurred.
