"Anois teacht an Earraigh, beidh an lá dul chun sine, 's tar eis na féile Bríde tosos mé ag..." *dul go glór! Yes, it's spring, and time to emerge from hibernation and to begin to go out again. We have a great February/March programme with lots of events to tickle your fancy and entertain the family. Our glór family day is on St. Patrick's Day, which we will celebrate with music, dancing and a showcase of artisan Clare foods.

Please take time to visit glór during the day now that our café is serving delicious and seasonal local food and our craft shop is selling high quality, highly original, value for money Irish crafts.

Now with the springtime, The days will grow longer, And after St. Bride's day, I will go...*

EDDI READER

Since the early 80s, Eddi has helped to define the landscape in which folk artists and singer-songwriters navigate. Her incomparable voice and positive outlook have been a much loved fixture on the music scene since her band, Fairground Attraction, hit the charts with Perfect in 1988. After Fairground Attraction's breakup, Reader ventured onto a solo career, to the delight of both fans and critics. Eddi continues to fly the flag for original, distinctive songwriting with her new album Love Is The Way.

INSIDE OUT (KILLANENA/FLAGMOUNT)

This timely documentary sets out to explore a small rural community on the cusp of change. Produced by Lough Graney Youth Club with the assistance of Artist in Residence, Filmmaker Hilary Dully, the film meanders through a traditional farming community as seen by its inhabitants - old, young and newly arrived. The film is a gentle and poignant testament to the joys, hardships and passions of rural life in County Clare.

BOY WITH A SUITCASE

Ages 8 - 12 Years

Boy with a Suitcase is the story of a 12 year old war refugee, who undertakes a long and dangerous journey to find asylum in Ireland. He carries with him only a small suitcase and a treasure of stories from his childhood. Like his hero, Sinbad the Sailor, who undertook many perilous voyages in search of his fortune, Naz must travel half-way around the world to reach the safety of his brother in Dublin. A ripping yarn of adventure and stories.

DECLAN O'ROURKE

Declan O'Rourke used to be one of Ireland's best kept secrets, but rave reviews for his debut album Since Kyabram, a growing international fanbase and an enviable collection of eminent devotees, including Paul Weller, Snow Patrol and Kate Rusby, are rapidly changing that. The buzz is growing, based on the simplicity of great songs and a unique voice. He has an understated charm and a quick-wittedness that make him highly endearing live, and equally at home playing to one person as he is to thousands.
