Welcome to glór's autumn brochure, with our fantastic Conor Harrington building painting featured on the front cover. We hope you'll find a plethora of terrific shows, to suit all ages and tastes. We've got some acclaimed and award winning theatre lined up for the autumn, and we're very excited about the In Colour exhibition, featuring some of Ireland's most renowned artists. In October, we're celebrating children (of all ages!), with some delightful shows that the young ones will love. In November, glór will mark its 10th birthday, and we look forward to celebrating with you this significant milestone as Co. Clare's venue.

Please support your local venue by coming for a night out at one of our shows, and check out www.glor.ie for updates.

IN COLOUR EXHIBITION

glór is delighted to welcome In Colour, a unique exhibition and education programme aimed at Leaving Cert Art students. The exhibition features work by some of Ireland's most prolific artists, borrowed from the extensive AIB and Arts Council collections. The education programme aims to bring the syllabus alive by providing students and teachers the opportunity to tour the exhibition, as well as attend the National Gallery of Ireland's Leaving Cert Introduction seminar.

An education resource catalogue accompanies the programme and features detailed information on selected artists included in the exhibition.

THE ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW

Dir: Jim Sharman, UK, 1975, 101 mins,
Cert: CLUB

This low-budget freak show/cult classic/cultural institution concerns the misadventures of Brad Majors, (Barry Bostwick), and Janet Weiss, (Susan Sarandon), inside a strange mansion that they come across on a rainy night, and the cast of bacchanalian partygoers they meet there.

Wednesday 5 October 8pm

APOCALYPSE NOW

Dir: Francis Ford Coppola, USA, 1979,
153 mins, Cert: 18

It is mid-way through the Vietnam War, and troubled US Captain, (Martin Sheen), is given a special mission, to go far up river into Cambodia. An epic in almost every way, it is Grand Opera for the cinema and a must see-movie.

Wednesday 2 November 8pm

A CLOCKWORK ORANGE

Dir: Stanley Kubrick, UK, 1971, 137 mins,
Cert: CLUB

A Clockwork Orange tells the story of Alex and his thug friends, addicted to mindless acts of violence, killing tramps and raping women. The balletic violence is choreographed with an unsettling slickness, coming as a sharp jab to the kidneys. It is difficult to watch and impossible to tear your eyes from.

GRENADES

by Tara McKevitt

Northern Ireland, 1979: Nuala Kelly takes no prisoners. A tough nine-year-old living with her mother, brother and grandfather. She loves Thin Lizzy and The Undertones - just like her big brother, Oran; she'd do anything for him. But what she does one day for her brother, no-one could ever have imagined...

Set in a prison ten years later, Grenades is a compelling drama that has at its heart the bruised innocence of Nuala, who must re-live the events of her childhood and finally make sense of them all.

FAITH HEALER

by Brian Friel

Directed by Andrew Flynn and performed by Lalor Roddy, Ali White and Rod Goodall, Faith Healer is widely recognised as one of the masterpieces of Ireland's greatest living playwright.

Frank is a faith healer. Travelling with his two companions, Grace and Teddy, he roams Scotland and Wales healing the sick. The lame, the ill and the broken hearted gather for the Fantastic Francis Hardy: Faith Healer. Haunting, tender and passionate, Faith Healer takes us into the heart of what it means to believe. As we are drawn deeper into the world of Frank and his companions, our certainties fall away as we are led towards the play's magisterial, unforgettable climax.

MISE, SCÉAL CAILÍN

Ages 7+ | Duration: 45 Mins

Sometimes small things happen, and they are small things, but in our head they grow into huge problems. This is the story of a little girl who can't sleep because a small thing happened, and of the cloud that won't leave her. With beautiful puppetry, live music and animation, Branar tells this simple, magical and moving story of the night the girl couldn't get to sleep and the adventure she had in trying.

Tarlaíonn rud beag uaireanta agus is rud beag é, ach i do cheann méadaíonn sé agus méadaíonn sé go dtí gur fhadhb mór mílteach é. Is scéal é seo faoi chailín nach féidir titim ina codladh de bharr an rud beag a rinne sí agus ansin faoin scamall nach bhfágann í. Le puipeadóireacht álainn, ceol beo agus beochan, insíonn Branar go paiteanta an scéal simplí ach draíochtúil seo.

LOVE AND FURY: THE PASSION OF JONATHON SWIFT

Acclaimed actor David Heap plays Dublin's 18th century satirist, essayist and political pamphleteer, Jonathan Swift. The play concentrates on the 1720s when Swift published some of his greatest work, including Gulliver's Travels. It includes pieces which reflect, (with contemporary resonance), on the banking crisis of his day. Swift's love for "Stella" is expressed through elegant birthday poems and the moving elegy he composed upon her death.

VLADIMIR JABLOKOV & CLASSICAL TWIST

Vladimir Jablokov makes his first visit to Ennis, with his superb band of young Irish and Slovak musicians, Classical Twist. Vlad is a young violin virtuoso from Bratislava, Slovakia, who started playing the violin aged five, making his stage debut at the tender age of ten. His main musical focus at the moment is his small ensemble and the winning hybrid of classics, jazz and pop he calls 'Classical Twist.' From the Stones' Paint it Black to Bach's Violin Concerto, Classical Twist puts a fresh, contemporary spin on some of the greatest melodies ever written, delivered with verve in an accessible and approachable style.

ON AND OFF

11am & 1.30pm

Ages 1 to 4 | Duration 55 Mins

€8/€24 Family of 4

On stage there is an actor, but the main character is light. Music and movement create a dance to the rhythms of the light switches. Lamps, bulbs and cables become flowers, a spoon, a candle, a carousel... On and Off helps young children overcome their fear of the dark and discover the language of light.

L'ELEFANTINO/THE LITTLE ELEPHANT

12.30pm | €8/€24 Family of 4

Ages 2 to 6 | Duration 55 Mins

Bubu is the only boy of the family and his sisters are too small to look after the house, so Mum and Dad have given Bubu the job of washing all the family's socks. It is a tedious job, and so Bubu, while washing, tells a story. As if by magic socks come to life and transform into animals of the jungle that will tell us how the little elephant with a small nose but an insatiable curiosity, was the first of all the elephants to have a trunk. Inspired by the Just So Stories 'The Elephant's Child' by Rudyard Kipling.

Since 1976, Bologna-based theatre company, La Baracca has produced over 140 shows for children and put on more than 9,000 performances.
